1. During 1958 the Inspector General's Staff interviewed approximately 150 PCS returnees from overseas assignments. The names of the returnees were selected at random from lists provided and include all grade levels.

2. Of the 150 returnees interviewed, roughly 50 per cent had no complaints to register or suggestions to offer, and stated that their tours had been quite satisfactory. The comments and suggestions of the remaining 50 per cent were analyzed by the Inspector General's Office, and pertinent excerpts of the analysis are attached for your information.
